

Maintenance Dredging Work Windows by Area and Species

Revised Draft Work Windows (Green)
1/06/21

Site	Species	January		February		March		April		May		June		July		August		September		October		November		December
		1-15	16-31	1-15	16-28	1-15	16-31	1-15	16-30	1-15	16-31	1-15	16-30	1-15	16-31	1-15	16-30	1-15	16-30	1-15	16-30	1-15	16-31	1-15	16-31
SF Bay Bridge to Sherman Island	Chinook Salmon and Steelhead	Consultation Required January to May										Work Window										Consultation Required November to December
Carquinez Bridge to Collinsville	Delta Smelt Water ≤10' *	Consultation Required January to December
	Delta Smelt Water >10' *	Consultation Required January to July												Work Window August to November								Consultation Required November to December
Napa and Petaluma Rivers, Sonoma Creek	Steelhead	Consultation Required January to July												Work Window August to October 15				Consultation Required October 16 to December
Napa River	Delta Smelt	Work Window January		Consultation Required February to July										Work Window August to December
All areas within 45 meters of eelgrass habitat	Dungeness Crab	Work Window January to April								Consultation Required May to June				Work Window July to December
San Francisco Bay from Pinole Point to Redwood Creek	Pacific Herring	Consultation Required January to March 15				Work Window March 16 to November																Consultation Required November to December
Richardson Bay & San Francisco Waterfront (Hard stop at November 30th)	Pacific Herring	Consultation Required January to March 15				Work Window March 16 to November																Consultation Required November to December
Waters of Marin County from the Golden Gate Bridge to Richmond-San Rafael Bridge	Coho Salmon	Consultation Required January to May										Work Window June to October								Consultation Required November to December
Berkeley Marina to San Lorenzo Creek within 1 mile of coastline	California Least Tern	Work Window January to March 15				Consultation Required March 16 to July								Work Window August to December
South of Highway 92 Bridge (San Mateo-Hayward)	California Least Tern	Work Window January to May										Consultation Required June to September 15				Work Window September to December
In areas with eelgrass beds	California Least Tern	Consultation Required January to December
Baywide in areas of salt marsh habitat	California Clapper Rail	Consultation Required January to December
Baywide within 250 feet of salt marsh habitat	California Clapper Rail	Work Window January		Consultation Required February to August												Work Window September to December
In and adjacent to salt marsh habitat	Salt Marsh Harvest Mouse	Consultation Required January to December
Within 300 feet of known roost site	California Brown Pelican	Work Window January to June										Consultation Required July to September				Work Window October to December

For more detailed information, see Appendix F of the LTMS Management Plan or the LTMS EIR/EIS.

* Depths are represented in MLLW, and are project depth, not including over dredge allowance

This chart is for operations and maintenance dredging of existing navigational facilities. Other species may be affected by work in other areas.

WORK WINDOW

CONSULTATION REQUIRED