How to Provide Comments and Comment Time Limits. If you would like to comment at the beginning of the meeting or on an item scheduled for public discussion, you may do so in one of two ways: (1) being present at the physical meeting location; or (2) emailing comments in advance to public comment until 10 a.m. on the day of the meeting.

Each speaker may be limited to a maximum of three minutes or less at the discretion of the Chair during the public comment period depending on the volume of persons intending to provide public comment. It is strongly recommended that public comments be submitted in writing so they can be distributed to all task force members in advance of the meeting for review. You are encouraged to submit written comments of any length and detailed information to the staff prior to the meeting at the email address above, which will be distributed to the committee members.

Internet Access to Meeting Material. Public notices of meetings and staff reports (as applicable) dealing with matters on the meeting agendas can be found on BCDC's website. Simply access Bay Adapt Local Electeds Regional Task Force under the “Public Meetings” tab on the website and select the date of the meeting.

Questions and Staff Reports. If you have any questions concerning an item on the agenda, would like to receive notice of future meetings, or access staff reports related to the item, please contact Dana Brechwald, Assistant Planning Director for Climate Adaptation, at dana.brechwald@bcd.c.ca.gov.

Access to Meetings. Meetings are physically held in venues that are accessible to persons with disabilities. If you require special assistance or have technical questions, please contact staff at least three days prior to the meeting via email.

Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act. As a state agency, the Commission is governed by the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act which requires the Commission to: (1) publish an agenda at least ten days in advance of any meeting; and (2) describe specifically in that agenda the items to be transacted or discussed.
