Very nice to see the Oakland Parks Department making progress on the removal of encampments from Union Point Park.

While many remain this is at least some progress.

Thank You,
Brock

To the Bay Conservation and Development Commission

One year ago our Embarcadero Neighborhood Association participated in a tree planting, litter pickup and graffiti removal project with students from local schools in Union Point Park. The park was looking good and everybody was talking about doing more improvements and fixing up the playground. A day after the event someone moved into the park and pitched a tent. No one told him to leave.

Here's what the park looks like today April 23, 2024:

Structure next to playground with dog

Marina Parking lot

RV parked in South Parking lot over 6 months

Boat stored in South Parking lot

Encampment next to Coast Guard Bridge Sign posted

Absolutely no one goes to the park anymore. The giant structure in the middle of the park next to the playground houses a huge black dog that roams free and barks at anyone that goes near the playground. Another person living under the walkway overpass also has a dog that roams free and has chased people. This has been reported.

The park has been lost to a handful of people that are known criminals and have participated in the theft of outboard motors, copper wiring from Jack London Square Marina and other boat burglaries and drug dealing from the motorhome can be seen on a regular basis.

We ask the Enforcement Committee to do their job and enforce the requirements of the agreement with the city of Oakland in maintaining and protecting Union Point Park. The city has over $23 million from Measure Q that is unspent and is specifically to be spent on parks. Please help us get our park back.

Respectfully,

Chris McKay
